

DAILY OPERATIONS SECTION ROLL UP REPORT

BRANCH: Emergency Services

DATE: September 13, 2017

Note: If you don't have anything to report for an item, list NSTR: Nothing Significant to Report

CRITICAL SHORTFALLS (people, things, systems that prevent doing the mission. JFO response: Get it ASAP)

- NSTR
-

SHORTAGES: people, things, systems that you have a need and the capacity to use. Causes degradation, but not mission prevention. JFO response: Look into it and get as able.

- NSTR
-

CONCERNS (policy, procedure, organizational flow that you do not confidently understand. JFO response: Clarify and/or find someone knowledgeable to make contact.

- NSTR
-

KEY OBJECTIVES/TASKS NOT MET: IAP work that could not get done and why. JFO response: reprogram for subsequent Operational Periods or help eliminate the obstacles to achievement.

- NSTR

LOCAL OR STATE HOT ISSUES: what you hear or see from field staff that the JFO must be made aware. JFO response: Coordinate, clarify, or dispel.

- The TAGA mobile laboratory and four air quality technical specialists monitored the neighborhoods adjacent to industrial sources, Southwest Shipyard–Brady Island and Channel Energy Center. TAGA monitoring was terminated early due to unfavorable wind conditions.
- The EPA ASPECT completed flight operations for the Harvey Response. A total of 134 Risk Management Program (RMP), 456 drinking water, and 105 waste water facilities were surveyed.
- EPA will complete sampling of the 34 Superfund sites in Texas impacted by the storm today. Preliminary analytical results for the Texas Superfund sites will be available by Saturday, September 16, 2017. Sampling at the nine Louisiana Superfund sites will be completed by September 15, 2017, and preliminary analytical results will be available by September 18, 2017.
- Five Oil Discharge Removal Teams coordinated and monitored responsible party clean-ups and prioritized threats to the environment for removal in Laguna Madre, Padre Island Canals, Flour Bluff Canals, White Cap, Corpus Christi Bay, Ingleside, Nueces Bay, Mustard Island, the city of Corpus Christi, Copano Bay, Lamar Peninsula, Rattlesnake Point, and Holiday Beach.

DAILY OPERATIONS SECTION ROLL UP REPORT

UNEXPECTED VIPS OR INTERACTIONS: Awareness. JFO response: Share with leadership

- NTSR

ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS OF INFORMATION: you desire info to shape your operations – i.e., when will power & wastewater treatment be restored in (area), etc. JFO response: Find out and reply.

- NTSR